

Bridge for Emerging Contemporary Art

The BECA Foundation and the artists + designers whom we've been so fortunate to work with thus far,
would like to take this opportunity to say

THANK-YOU!

to our friends and supporters
for their generosity and random acts of kindness.
Without the generous support of our volunteers, patrons, advisors, partners and sponsors, the global Bridge for Emerging Contemporary Art would not exist, grow and flourish.

With our sincere gratitude,
BECA
